Informational Letter

to Heads of research institutions, higher educational institutions, specialized state, industrial, joint organizations and enterprises

Dear colleagues!

In 2023, one of the largest scientific centers of the Republic of Kazakhstan, the Research Institute for Biological Safety Problems (former ACRI), celebrates its 65th anniversary. For more than half a century, this well-known scientific center in Kazakhstan and abroad has been engaged in fundamental and applied research of pathogens of particularly dangerous infectious diseases of humans and animals, the development of diagnostic, preventive and anti-infectious drugs using modern scientific methods.

For this significant event on September 7-8, 2023 in Almaty it is planned to hold an international scientific and practical conference "Biotechnology and biosafety: achievements and prospects for development".

The conference is planned to consider the following issues:

1. Fundamental aspects of the study of infectious pathogens
2. Prophylactic, diagnostic and anti-infective drugs
3. Biosafety and bioethics
4. Phytosanitary safety and plant protection

The materials of the conference will be published in the proceedings in various areas in Russian or Kazakh and English.

Scientists from Kazakhstan, as well as countries of near and far abroad, are invited to participate in the conference.

To participate in the conference, it is necessary to fill out the registration form of the participant and send it in electronic form with the note "Scientific and practical conference" with a notification of delivery to the e-mail addresses k. sultankulova@biosafety.kz, o. chervyakova@biosafety.kz, a. nakhanov@biosafety.kz, a. maulenbay@biosafety.kz until June 30, 2023.
